Palmanova Area Information

Palma Nova's 3 Beautiful Beaches the Traditional Favourite for Expatriates and Holidaymakers
Palma Nova was one of the first purpose-built tourist destinations on the island, catering for all tastes and remains.

One only has to take a glimpse of the 3 long, fine white sandy beaches and the beautiful blue water to see why it continues to draw so many people.

Beckoned by its hot summers and mild winter climate and of course the fabulous beach front, this has over the last 50 years also become home to many expatriates and you will find here many signs of this with the local shops stocking many international products.

Beach Front Apartments and Large Residential Neighbourhoods

As this town was pretty much purpose built for tourism, you will find around the beach front area that many of the properties are apartments many dating back to the 1970's and 1980's, however travel a couple of streets back from this and you will find a vast residential area with traditional Mallorcan houses and some large luxury Villas as well.
