Capdellà Area Information

Culture, colour and character in charming Capdella

If you are dreaming of village life with pretty bougainvillea clad cottages and authentic tapas bars then this may just be your idea of paradise. Nestled in the foothills of the Tramuntana mountain range, Capdellais located between the larger towns of Calvià and Andratx in south-west Mallorca.

Awe inspiring scenery of the majestic mountains lays all around you in this very special idyllic location.

History and culture of Capdellà

Stone-faced village houses, rustic fincas and architect-designed villas are home to a lively international community, which keeps this enchanting village buzzing all-year-round.

With historical evidence back to the Roman and Arab occupation and the restored castle hotel of Castell Son Claret, which incidentally boasts a Michelin star restaurant and dates back to the mid-1800s, you may feel you have stepped back in time in this delightful village.
